Choose a Challenge you've faced in your professional or personal life that you found your way through.

Reflect on the following questions:

What was the challenge or difficulty?

Was there anything new or unfamiliar about this experience for you?

What was important to you?

What barriers or obstacles did you encounter along the way?

What/who supported or helped you through it?

What insight has stayed with you from this experience – about yourself or the world?